BLANKET BARGAINS

Mild weather will not last long.

Neither will the PRESENT Bargains in Blankets.

We placed our orders with makers during a time of general depression---when orders were scarce and prices of raw materials at the lowest point --- with the result that we have secured the most carefully-made goods at the lowest prices. In addition to these we have a number of choice blankets carried over from last season, slightly soiled; to dispose of them quickly have marked them down at least 25 per cent. below prices generally prevailing.

Novelty Silks

INVESTIGATION IS TO PROCEED

Burgess Maloney Is Served with Legal Document That Is Liable to Delay the Paving of Main Street. The Case to Be Argued on Friday Next-Mr. Maloney Proposes to Proceed with the Investigation as to Charges Against Councilmen.

Special to the Scranton Tribune

PITTSTON, Sept. 18. THISTON, Sept. 18. four weeks ago that there be no paving done on Main street "this year of our Lord," many were inclined to believe that the prediction was somewhat bold and erratic. However, it has come to pass that the prediction contained considerble truth, as recent developments have shown. While the council on Monday night was engaged in wrestling with the proposed investigation Deputy Sheriff Henry Brenner quietly stepped into the council chamber and espying Burgess Maloney in the room adjoining served an injunction upon him greatly to his surprise. Borough Attorney Bohen was called from his seat alongside President Mangan and the contents of the legal document divulged to him. Its contents caused both gentlemen to go into a state of total collapse, and the prospects of an asphalt or brick pave adorning Main street is now considered to be farther off than ever before.

The injunction was issued at the instance of M. W. Morris and sets forth three reasons why the council should be restrained from making any further step toward paving Main street. The lower than ever before petitioners for the i njunction say, that the council has no legal right-to take such steps. First, because the election under which it is proposed to make the necessary indebtedness was illegal and void. Second, because the proposed increase would be beyond the amount al-lowed by law. Third, because the making of the contract with the Bar-ber Asphalt company under the terms oer Aspnalt company under the terms of the contract would increase the indebtness beyond the legal limit.
